

TIPS FOR A GOOD READING AND KNOWING A GOOD READER

RELAX, be calm and centered for your session.

Be CLEAR & PRECISE, state the reason you are seeking a session. The clearer you can be, the more detailed the responses will be.

BE FAIR, don't confuse or give half truths, you only hurt the quality of the session.

Remember that you have FREE WILL; a good reader will give you suggestions but will not tell you what to do.

A good reader is there to help you move forward on the next step of your personal path, helping you to understand the philosophy of right living, providing GUIDANCE.

A good reader EMPOWERS YOU so that you can make better informed decisions about your life.

A good reader helps you to realize your OWN POWER and does not instill doubt or fear.

A good reader COMPLETES THE SESSION in the time stated, for the amount stated, for the purpose stated, not luring you towards more.

A good reader maintains a PROPER business relationship with the client.

RED FLAGS BE CAREFUL SENSING AN UNSCRUPULOUS READER

The reader QUESTIONS YOU for numerous details.

The reader tries to appear very mysterious, a CARNIVAL OR THEATRICAL LIKE ATMOSPHERE.

The reader tells you there is a CURSE on you, and it will cost you MONEY TO FIX IT.

The reader starts with one price but the PRICE GOES UP for what you need.

The reader says they will DO SOMETHING SPECIAL for your specific condition, which will cost you more money. (like burn a candle, get you a crystal and bless it, give you a custom made charm to wear, etc)

The reader tells you that you must have REPEAT SESSIONS to fix your particular issue.

The reader tells you that BAD THINGS WILL HAPPEN unless you do all the things you are told to do, most of the time this includes paying large sums of money to the reader.

The reader uses words like "you need to", "you should", "you must", "always", "never"; attempting to DOMINATE OR DIRECT YOU
